Joseph Enoch Admits Deed to Richmond Police

Young Man Yields to Grilling and Tells How He Waylaid 16-Year-Old Girl And Hit Her on Head.

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., April 29.—Joseph Enoch, 23, a fireman employed at the shops of the Atlantic Coast Line railway, was reported by the police tonight to have confessed the brutal murder of a 16-year-old girl whose body was found in an abandoned field near her home Friday morning.

Enoch, who is said to have been an admirer of the girl, who was a victim of his crime, made a complete confession of the crime according to reports from the police. He was taken into custody after he was grilling and told how he waylaid the girl and hit her on the head with something he held in his hand.

The youth denied according to the officers' knowledge of what transpired after he struck the girl.

Enoch was taken into custody yesterday and was subjected to a severe grilling which lasted throughout the night. He was taken to the spot where the girl's body was found about 2 o'clock this morning but detectives who accompanied him said that he maintained his ignorance of the crime.

Enoch was placed in solitary confinement last night and a special guard was placed over him. A warrant formally charging him with murder and assault and battery was issued late today.

Enoch's daughter, a 16-year-old girl, was taken to the hospital and is recovering from her injuries. She was struck on the head and her body was found in an abandoned field near her home Friday morning.

Enoch is reported to have said that he wanted under the victim for several minutes, and then saw Miss Shevick coming down the hill. She was alone, he said.

Enoch is quoted as saying that he smiled at her and she smiled at him. He then said, according to the statement made public by Captain Wright that he

Baptist Minister Takes Stand For Broad Principals

Rev. Cornelius Woelfkin in New York Would Get Away From Ironclad Tenets of That Denomination.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 30.—The Rev. Cornelius Woelfkin, pastor of the Park Avenue Church, aroused considerable discussion among his parishioners today as a result of his sermon yesterday in which he criticized some long-standing Baptist doctrines and urged the congregation to abandon them.

He also defended the stage and had a good word for Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Christian Science.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., heard the sermon.

"Our practice of excluding members of other denominations unless they are baptized again in our rite is out of harmony with the spirit which is growing in the churches," Dr. Woelfkin said.

"We have already opened our communion table to other Christians. I do not suppose that in Heaven when communion is celebrated John Calvin, John Knox, John and Charles Wesley and other great leaders will be denied the privilege of sitting with Baptists? We need a greater tolerance of the various sects, 'isms' and fads which are springing up today. I do not regard them as heretical. They are the result of a spiritual urge on the part of people who are seeking what they think the church cannot furnish them."

"Sir Oliver Lodge is one of the outstanding scientists of his generation and he is trying earnestly to lift the veil. So, also, is Conan Doyle, the healing movements are practicing a lost function of the church it should regain."

Religious Work In Home Emphasized At Mount Vernon

Despite the inclement weather on Sunday morning a large crowd was present at Mount Vernon church to observe Sunday School Day with the young people of that church. The beautiful and impressive service which the day was held was an original program provided for the occasion by Miss H. Olin Thornton and Miss Rose L. Martin.

The first of the service was a demonstration of some of the work being done in the elementary division of the school. The second part was a home scene designed to appeal to the parents of the community to cooperate with the Sunday school work.

In the first part of the program the little people of the Beginner Department under the leadership of Miss E. S. Smith gave an effective dramatization of an Easter story. This was followed by a group of selections from the memory work done by the pupils in the upper grades of the primary department together with several songs used in the worship programs of that department. This part of the program was under the direction of Miss E. S. Smith.

The second part of the program was a home scene designed to appeal to the parents of the community to cooperate with the Sunday school work. The scene was acted by Miss E. S. Smith and Miss Rose L. Martin.

Scores Of Farmers Lose Barns Before Storm's Onslaught

Lanier's Mill Is Completely Destroyed by Saturday Night's Blow—Roofs Carried Away and Outbuildings Dashed to Pieces.

Detailed information was available today of the damage done northwest of Danville at dusk Saturday night when a miniature cyclone wrought havoc near this city which also experienced part of the blow. With the prostration of telephone wires Saturday night it was impossible to glean more than meager reports of damage.

The storm came up just after the sun had set and against the afterglow could be seen an ominous funnel-shaped cloud which to observers in the residential section of Danville, recalled the advent of the disastrous cyclone of several years ago. Intermittent lightning flashes and the almost continuous rumble of thunder caused no little apprehension.

The damage was not confined to the Witt section but nearly all of the farmers living in the area of the storm suffered losses through the demolition of barns and roofs. The destruction of tobacco barns is a serious matter for the tobacco growers. Just now they are beginning to plant out their seedlings and their full attention will be taken up from now until cutting time when they will have to erect new barns for the curing of the next crop.

The storm in Danville blew down a tree near Mount Vernon church and a driving tropical deluge with almost continuous lightning. The first storm lasted about 10 minutes and it seemed as though it had passed as quickly as it had come but the city was still under its influence. The second visitation being worse than the first. Ten minutes after the storm had ceased the sky was clear and the moon was shining brightly.

Mr. Harper, who lives here today said that if Danville had suffered the full brunt of the storm as was evidenced at Witt far more serious damage would have been done.

Supreme Court Upsets Ruling On Prohibition

Intoxicating Beverages Can Be Served on American Ships Outside U. S. Territorial Waters.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 30.—The ruling of Attorney General Daugherty against the serving of liquor on United States ships on the high seas was overturned today by the Supreme court which held that the prohibition amendment could not legally be applied to prevent the sale of liquor from selling beverages when they are outside American territorial waters.

To that extent the decision reversed a decision in a case by Federal Judge Hand in New York. Within the three mile limit, the court found an entirely different situation obtains. Sustaining the position taken by Judge Hand, the decision said it was illegal for U. S. or foreign ships to bring into American ports liquors sealed in bond for the use of passengers on outgoing voyages.

The decision rendered by the Federal government as one of the most important yet handed down in regard to prohibition enforcement was read by Justice Van Devanter.

Justices McReynolds and Sutherland dissented. Justice Sutherland delivered a dissenting opinion explaining his action that American ships cannot have on board intoxicating liquors in American waters but believed that prohibition should not be applied to foreign ships.

Miltonians Wiser If Not Prettier

A number of people living in Milton, N. C. have recently had occasion to learn that beauty is not all, is only skin deep and that the pursuit of club life is not without its difficulties. These people are a group of the Miltonians who are particularly interested in the present whereabouts of two beauty specialists.

The specialists it appears found that the field for beautification was not fertile and that there were so few people anxious to become rejuvenated that it was necessary to broaden the scope of their activity. They claimed, it is said to cure blemishes, wrinkles, and other signs of age, and to require that treatment be made for ten treatments. A number of Miltonians were prevailed upon to take treatment from the strangers.

After a week the man, the woman, the car and about three hundred rips in the ground were seen headed north.

Reports from Milton are that they have not been seen since.

The team representing the Tigers at home won over Lynchburg by a 3 to 0 decision. The team from Lynchburg, which had won the last debate, had not yet been heard.

The home team defended the affirmative side of the question which was resolved that a canal should be built capable of carrying ocean commerce from the St. Lawrence River to the Gulf of Mexico. The affirmative was represented by Gordon Clark of Richmond and N. A. Robinson of Charlottesville. The negative was represented by Lynchburg.

The debate interesting not only from the economic points of view presented by each side but in addition on account of the merits of the debaters who presented their respective sides of the question with clarity and emphasis.

Surrender of Gun Supremacy Stirs U.S. 'Big Navy' Men

Representative Britten Opens Attack That Is Expected to Cause Inquiry by Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Surrender by the Harding administration to the British representations against elevation of guns on American battleships, expressed in the announced decision by Secretary of the Navy Denby to await further instructions from Congress before using the money appropriated by Congress for this purpose, promises a complete revision of the results of the Arms Conference in the next Congress.

Criticism of the Administration course in accepting what naval experts call a secondary position in relation to the British navy, comes from those who are listed as "Big Navy" men in the House and from Senators who believe the naval agreements have merely changed competitive building from the construction of battleships to that of auxiliary craft and air ships.

Senator Borah is one of those who believes that a new conference should be held to reach an agreement for the limitation of all armament, while Representative Britten (R., Ill.), member of the House Naval Affairs Committee, today expressed vigorous criticisms of the government's decision. Representative Britten "holds the opinion expressed by experts in the naval service that the inferior gun

JOSEPH CONRAD, BRITISH NOVELIST, TO SET RECORD

BY MILTON BRONNER (Special to The Bee.)

LONDON, April 30.—Joseph Conrad, one of the world's greatest novelists, will land in the United States in a few days to set a record. He is coming to lecture, to read to us, or write a book about us. He is not coming to make money out of us, like so many lesser literary lights.

He, indeed, he's coming to spend some money seeing what America is like.

I wanted him to tell me all about his prospective visit, but failed. I wasn't surprised, for the late Lord Northcliffe once told me that the most modest man he had ever known was Conrad.

"He is so great and so modest," said Northcliffe, "that he can never be made to understand that the public has an interest in him personally aside from his marvelous books."

He lives in semi-seclusion in a modest home down in Kent. When I wrote to him asking him to see me to talk about his trip to America, he sent back a simple typewritten line: "Mr. Conrad has nothing to say."

Not even a signature. His autographs don't go floating about the world.

The greatest living English novelist is not an Englishman at all. He can't even speak English without an accent that betrays his foreign origin. Yet his written English is marvelous.

His real name is J. C. Korzeniowski and he comes from a distinguished Polish family. In his boyhood days Poland had no seaport of its own. Nevertheless the boy, soldiers and sailors, had an insistent call to the sea. As England was the greatest sea-power, he determined to see service in British ships.

For years he traveled in Asiatic waters and around the ports of Malaysia and the East Indies. At that time his favorite reading was the great French novelists. At the same time he was painfully teaching himself how to read and write English.

When he started to write himself, he chose as his subject the life of a sailor, a man of the sea and that of the East Indies.

Although his novels and tales were soon recognized by critics as masterpieces, it was a long time before he got vogue enough to make his books really paying ventures. Then he retired from his captaincy of a merchant vessel and settled down in England.

JOSEPH CONRAD

Good Morning Judge!

The lengthy police blotter this morning was evidence that activities with the police over the week-end lived up considerably. A large number of drunks were taken up Saturday night and Sunday, also a number of blapp and violations for carrying weapons. Still also drew a line of eleven dollars and costs for resisting arrest. The case of Hall will probably go before the juvenile court for disposition, because of the fact that his age was given as seventeen years. The woman who is said to have tried to borrow a gun from her brother with which to kill one of the officers making the arrest, was fined sixteen dollars and costs. Officer W. C. Talley, who made the arrests, admitted using his club on the two men. After they had become so disorderly and threatening in their attitude that he felt he was acting in self defense.

Sylvester Smith, colored, was fined twenty-one dollars and costs for operating an all-governed house on Craighead street.

George Johnson, caught with half gallon of whiskey, was fined fifty dollars and costs and sentenced to three days in jail with the term suspended. He was also assessed eleven dollars and costs for being drunk.

Josephine Harden, colored, drew a fine of six dollars and costs for creating a disturbance by the use of profane language on the street. A similar charge against Henry Garland was dismissed. The couple were coming from Sunday School Sunday morning when Police Officer W. B. Foster overheard the negroes "using some mighty bad language," as he stated at the hearing this morning. He said that the man was not using any bad language.

A fine of fifty dollars and costs and a term of thirty days in jail with the sentence suspended, was imposed on N. L. Burton on a charge of violating the Mann act by having a half gallon of whiskey in his possession. Burton was in the machine with J. B. Nutter and J. I. Smith, the latter driving. Similar charges were brought against Butler and Smith but were dismissed after the evidence was heard. It was Butler, whom the men had picked up to give him a ride to town, who had the liquor.

Paul Haymore was fined $5 and costs for operating his machine without the proper license tags and an additional $21 and costs for speeding.

Willie Wilson and Ruth Wilson, colored, drew fines of twenty dollars and costs on statutory charges.

QUEER WEATHER ASCRIBED TO SUN WHICH IS GROWING COLDER

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Government scientists, including the heads of the United States Weather Bureau have been thoroughly startled by results of examinations of the sun's world heating capacity, made by Dr. C. G. Abbot, home secretary of the National Academy of Science. According to Dr. Abbot, the sun appears to have gone on strike and is exerting its warming qualities upon the earth for an extent from three to four per cent. less than fifteen months ago.

This unusual action on the part of the sun is assumed to be responsible for the present late spring, may have had its influence upon the strange winter season just passed and may presage a damagingly cold summer and an intensely severe season next winter.

Scientists are in the present situation a possible duplication of the disastrous summer of 1816 when frosts occurred during June and July, causing wholesale loss of crops and requiring food production to a minimum. Whatever may be the cause of the decision of the sun to reduce its heating effect, no one is prepared to say when the present conditions may return to normal or when the increase in the cooling-off process are considered possible.

Weather Bureau officials refused to commit themselves on the startling statement made by Dr. Abbot in a paper before the meeting of the American Association of Scientists, stating that the experiments upon which Dr. Abbot bases his conclusions are so new that it is impossible to determine their value in anticipating weather conditions for long periods in advance. All admit, however, that if the experiments which have resulted in measuring the sun's heat and determining that it is three to four per cent. below normal, have been in progress only twenty years and thus a short time in the history of the sun. They were commenced by the late Prof. Langley, formerly head of the Smithsonian Institution in Washington and continued by Dr. Abbot.

This scientific pronouncement says it is impossible to predict what would happen if the low temperature of the sun continued. He points out that the world is so filled with varying conditions, such as the climate differences, such as the clouds, forests, oceans, mountains, etc., that general "coolness" need not be expected.

He merely points out that the last winter was most unusual and that the present spring is the latest on record. Some scientists have previously offered the opinion that a lowering of the sun's heat four degrees for an indefinite period might approach a return to the glacial period. Dr. Abbot has no opinion on this subject, pointing out that changes in the heat exerted by the sun on the earth recurred.

While Dr. Abbot offers no reason for the sun's changes in temperature, other scientists connected with the various government institutions, associate them with phenomena of sun spots, resulting from wholesale eruptions of gaseous substances from the sun's surface, extending outward almost unimaginable distances.

Assails Men Who Take the Law Into Their Own Hands

J. W. Bailey Characterizes Such Men as Anarchists Who Destroy Law and Government.

Freight Train Leaves Rails

PITTSBURGH, N. C., April 30.—When men singly or in groups take the law into their hands they at once become enemies of the government," declared W. B. Bailey, of Raleigh, in an address to the Pittsburgh high school today. "Putting heads on their head makes the matter all the worse," he added.

"No matter what the provocation, they cannot justify themselves. There is but one way to enforce order and that is by law. If officers fail, the only course is to turn them out. To undertake to do their duty for them is usurpation of power. It is lawlessness itself. It is no better than anarchy. We have had in this state many manifestations of mob lawlessness—lynchings, whippings, intimidations. Those are all acts of anarchy—they are destructive of law and government. Whenever a group of men arrogate to themselves the duty of executing the law or keeping order and get away with it, they are in revolt against civilization. They are throwing over the state and the law which is its life. Call this thing 100 per cent. Americanism—it is 100 per cent. anti-Americanism. It is Turkishism. It is Russianism. It is anarchy. It is the anti-thesis of Americanism. No man in his senses will tolerate it. Those citizens who have joined any organization that stands for this sort of thing ought to repudiate every feature of the organization that tends to encourage this freedom destroying business. None can be unaware of the threats to exercise his invisible power in politics.

FIGHTS TWIXT LOVE AND DUTY

(Special to The Bee)

ST. PAUL, April 30.—Joe Marks is a bay policeman and, although not yet 14, he already has encountered a problem of love vs. duty that would make a romance of the hero were three times Joe's age.

Joe solved the mystery of the murder of his stepfather and within two hours led detectives to a man who now is accused of the deed.

But—this man, in his alleged confession, implicated Joe's own mother!

Louis Rottach, Joe's stepfather, was slain while asleep in his bed with his wife and their three-year-old son, Buddy.

Joe heard shots, rushed downstairs and caught a fleeting glimpse of the supposed slayer as he escaped across the lawn.

STARTS SLEUTHING

He called police, but true to the training of his duties on the school police force, started at once to unravel the crime.

He remembered that his father had had bitter words with his mother-in-law, Frank Retano, Minneapolis, and that Retano had threatened violence.

He remembered that the feeling man he saw through the window looking at the Retano. He looked through his mother's belongings and when police arrived had obtained Retano's Minneapolis address.

Police detectives, acting on Joe's tip, found the man and they charge him with aiding the gun in a bureau drawer in his room.

Retano confessed, according to police, but said that Mrs. Rottach had paid him $5 to buy the revolver and had left the door unlocked so that he could enter the house.

NEWS FROM REIDSVILLE

REIDSVILLE, N. C., April 28. — A recent blank was sent the secretary of the local of the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association asking them to report the acreage which they predict will be planted to tobacco in their community this season.

A review of Mr. Moore's report for the season shows that the 37 members in New Hope grew 143 acres of tobacco last season but are preparing to plant 145 1-2 this season—an increase of 2 1-2 acres. The 18 non-members grew 71 acres this season—are preparing to grow 71 acres this year—they not increasing acreage any. This community grew 214 acres last year and is preparing to plant 216 1-2 acres this year or an increase of one and seventeen hundredths percent.

The Kiwanis Club held its regular semi-monthly luncheon at the Hotel Belvedere Thursday at 12:15. There was a fine attendance of members and much interest and enthusiasm manifested.

One of the most encouraging features of the meeting was the interest that is being shown in the forthcoming revival meeting to be conducted by Evangelist John Brown commencing May 6 at Pink warehouses. Mr. Brown's advance agent, Mr. Clarence L. Virgin, was a guest of the club, and Kiwanian Marion S. Huske introduced him.

Mr. Virgin spoke interesting of the meeting and told the club something of the great work he is doing. The great work he is doing. The club unanimously adopted a motion to attend the services some night during the meeting in a body. Space will be reserved for the entire Kiwanis membership.

AVERETT COLLEGE NEWS

The artists' recital at Averett College tomorrow evening, Monday, April 30th, promises to be very largely attended. Very unusual interest attaches to the recital due to the fact that a number of prominent singers in Danville and two visiting pianists, besides four members of the Averett music faculty and several artist pupils will appear on the program. Only the works of Mr. Eugene Putnam, composer, will be programmed, but each soloist has promised an encore. The public is cordially invited and there will be no charge for admission.

A large number of the students left Friday to attend the student conference now in session at Greensboro, N. C. They were joined at the depot by a party of young ladies from Kautuck, who also were en route to the conference. Miss Lois Cody accompanied the party. They are expected to return this evening.

The new building is now practically completed. The white tile floor in the swimming pool has been successfully laid after several months' delay due to a spring in the bottom of the pool that appeared to baffle experts in an attempt to drain it. However, this has been accomplished. The pool presents a splendid appearance in design, workmanship and engineering.

Only four weeks of class work remain. The commencement will be held at the gymnasium on May 25th. The graduation exercises of the session will be the graduation exercises on May 28th.

George Lang, wanted in Danville on a charge of pick-pocketing, who jumped his cash bond of $1,400 here some months ago tried Saturday in Greensboro to secure his release from the Greensboro jail on habeas corpus proceedings, failing when a message was received late Saturday from Governor Cameron Morrison, instructing Greensboro authorities to hold Lang for Danville.

Lang was recently taken in custody by the Greensboro police department and Danville authorities were notified. Lang finally agreed to come to this city without requisition papers, but several days ago, through counsel, he brought habeas corpus proceedings. Jesse Benton, assistant Commonwealth's Attorney, went to Greensboro yesterday to fight Lang's effort to secure his release. In the meantime a request was made for requisition papers through Richmond. As soon as the papers reach Greensboro from Raleigh Lang will be brought to this city for trial.

Lang is wanted in Baltimore, Washington and other cities on charges of robbery and pick-pocketing.

RAID NETS 7 GALLONS BOOZE

Prohibition Inspector W. T. Shelton and county officers Thomas Smith, Frank Anderson and J. E. McCreary yesterday afternoon raided Richmond Clark's home near Renan in Pittsylvania and discovered seven gallons of corn whiskey and took charge of paraphernalia which represented a miniature bar room. It is said the negro was ill yesterday and he was arrested and summoned to court in Chatham next week. The officers had received information of Clark selling ardent spirits and they went there yesterday determined to break it up. They report that they found a regular "barroom" in one of the three rooms of the house. There were plenty of drinking glasses, funnels and various measuring cups and other articles necessary in disposing of the fluid by the drink.

R. G. THOMPSON HAS DISAPPEARED

Royal G. Thompson, 40 years of age, a painter by trade, has been missing from his home, Cliff street, since last Thursday morning, when he put on his overalls and announced to his wife that he was going to work on a house which is being erected on North Main street. Thompson has three small children.

J. R. Thompson, father of the missing man, stated last night that his family and friends had made every effort to find some trace of his son, but to no avail. Thompson's wife is in a precarious condition at her home, having been nearly frantic for the past two days over the disappearance of her husband.

The father stated that he feared foul play as his son had over $100 on his person.

The police were notified yesterday and are working on the case.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN IN 440 YD. RELAY RACE

(By The Associated Press)
DES MOINES, Ia., April 28.—A world's record was smashed, one possibly two American records were shattered and ten Drake records were broken today in the 14th annual Drake relay carnival which attracted more than 1,300 track and field stars, the greatest entry list in the history of the event.

Perfect weather, with a warm sun and a track lightning fast, made conditions favorable for the wholesale breaking of records.

The world's record to fall was made by the crack University of Illinois team in the 440 yard relay, the time being 42.81-0, a tenth of a second faster than the distance has ever been covered before.

An American record in the javelin was established by Milton Angier, of Illinois, holder of the mark, who heaved the shaft 203 feet 9.2 inches, bettering a record established in the Drake game a year ago by an even foot.

In addition to these undisputed records, athletic authorities tonight were unanimous in their opinion that Illinois should be credited with an American record in the 880 yard relay which the Hawkeyes reeled off in 3:16.9-10.

The coaches also claim a world's intercollegiate record for the University of Iowa team in the one mile relay which the Hawkeyes reeled off in 3:16.9-10.

BISHOPS CLOSE SECOND DAY

(By The Associated Press)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 28.—With the receipt of reports of mission progress in Brazil, Japan, Korea, Siberia and China by missionaries serving under the mission board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the College of Bishops of that body today completed the second day of its annual meeting here. Tomorrow the bishops will fill the pulpits in Nashville churches, concluding their meeting with Monday's session. Thirteen members of the college are in attendance at the meeting, the largest number ever gathered in Nashville.

MRS. NANNIE SNEAD.

Mrs. Nannie Snead, 87 years old, died last night at 11:34 o'clock at the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. H. T. Trent, 531 Keen street. The funeral will be held from the residence today at 2 p. m., conducted by the Rev. Ernest Hall.

Deceased is survived by one son, Claiborne Watson, of Texas, and a number of grand-children.

NEW DANCING RECORD

(By The Associated Press)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 28.—Albert Kish, new world's endurance champion, at 10 o'clock tonight passed the 120 hour mark and announced his determination to continue dancing for 26 hours longer. Early this morning Kish bested the 112 hour record held by A. C. Watson, of San Antonio, Texas.

College "Mother" Indorses Hazing

(Special to The Bee.)
MIDDLEBURY, Vt., April 30.—Is hazing good for boys?

"Yes—in reasonable amounts," says Mrs. Maud O. Mason, for many years matron of one of the men's dormitories at Middlebury College, and herself mother of two boys.

"Not at all," says the Rev. C. N. Tanner, English rector, whose 14-year-old son committed suicide because of the "ragging" of upper classmen in a British public school.

Between these divergent views lies a field of controversy as wide as the ocean itself. But one thing is agreed; the American "freshman," no matter how severe his hazing, gets off much easier than the British boy whose "bullying" starts in the public schools.

These public schools are really private institutions.

Vivian Merton Tanner, son of the rector, was sent to Christ's Hospital, better known as the "Bluecoat School." He was good looking, sensitive and very studious, being more interested in books than games. And that is a cardinal sin in a British public school.

The older boys "picked" on him incessantly. The crisis came one afternoon when he was ordered to act as line-man in a football match. He was pestered by his fellows, they charged him with making mistakes, and, it is said, several kicked him. Driven to desperation, he went to his locker, drew out a clasp knife, turned to his tormentors and said:

"You made me do it. You have killed me."

He then stabbed himself.

As a result of this tragedy many persons are bitterly attacking the whole British school system insofar as the conduct of the boys is concerned. In some schools the younger boys are the "fags" or servants of the older students.

No such extremes are common in the American schools. But the life of the freshman is not one of too much comfort.

"This," says Mrs. Mason, who has mothered thousands of boys in the New England college, "is as it should be." If freshmen didn't get a little traditional attention from the sophomores, they would think they were being cheated out of part of their college course.

"Some of the proudest fellows I've ever seen were those freshmen who were singled out to be 'stolen' by the sophs the night before a game or inter-collegiate contest."

"Mother" Mason does not approve of "fag" duckings or indiscriminate paddlings. She does believe, however, that a certain amount of class discipline administered firmly and with good humor, is invaluable in making a man out of the high school youths who come to college.

"MOTHER" MAUD O. MASON, WHO THINKS HAZING IN MODERATION IS GOOD FOR COLLEGE BOYS AND (INSET) VIVIAN MERTON TANNER, ENGLISH SCHOOLBOY WHO COMMITTED SUICIDE BECAUSE OF THE SEVERE "RAGGING" AT A BRITISH SCHOOL.

"The ordeals," she says, "which seemed most trying to them as freshmen are the ones over which the alumni chuckle most in later years."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

A full attendance of representatives from the different Sunday Schools that are entering a team in the Baseball League is requested by the committee at the meeting to be held Monday night at 8 o'clock. Registration fees must be turned in at this time, with lists of eligible players. Schedule will be made up immediately, with first games scheduled for May 15th.

Over 30 Juniors turned out for the regular class session Saturday morning and had a great time in the gym and pool. The pool is being used more every day with the general opinion that the water is fine.

Hand ball is coming into its own, with new converts to this excellent game being added steadily.

The annual swimming campaign will be put on the latter part of June and large numbers of non-members are expected to avail themselves of this opportunity of learning to swim.

TO INSPECT KNIGHTS TEMPLAR THURSDAY

On next Thursday evening at its stated convocation, Dove Commandery, No. 7, Knights Templar, will also undergo the annual inspection by the assistant inspector general of the Grand Commandery, the interesting ceremony and manual being gone through in the assembly of the commandery. This commandery now has a membership of about 375 knights, but as a considerable proportion of these reside in Chatham, Greene, Stuart, South Boston, Halifax and at various points throughout four counties, it is not so easy a matter to assemble all or nearly all in one place at the same time.

The inspection will be in the full uniform of the knight templar and is the usual simple formula so far as the military phases of the occasion are concerned, that is of more importance to the commandery is that it is rated in the Grand Commandery by its showing at inspection and the number of uniformed knights inspected. Last year the inspection was made by Major R. E. Johnson of Fort Belvoir, who was detailed for that purpose by the inspector general.

Special efforts are being made to assemble the largest percentage of the commandery ever present on an inspection occasion. The assistant commander Beach and his associate officers are desirous of having the fine commandery look its best and also its largest, numerically.

INDIGESTION RELIEVED WITH NEW CORDIAL

New Cordial Called "Anti-Ferment." Originated by a Druggist and Recommended by Physicians. Neutralizes Acid Condition of Stomach, Prevents Fermentation and Brings Instant Relief.

MONEY BACK IF YOU ARE NOT PROMPTLY RELIEVED

Indigestion and its attendant ills such as dyspepsia, heart-burn, sour stomach, gripping pains, dizziness, diarrhoea, colic, cholera morbus, chronic constipation, gas, etc., and even cold, nervous headaches are now directly traceable to disorders in the digestive organs.

The food stored before it is fully digested, thus putting into solution toxic poisons that are absorbed into the system, irritating the intestines and setting up inflammation. To avoid this, you simply have to prevent fermentation by using Anti-Ferment.

Anti-Ferment neutralizes the acid condition of the stomach, cleanses and sweetens the bowels, soothes and heals the inflamed intestines and increases the flow of gastric juice, thus quickening and relieving. Get a bottle of Anti-Ferment from your druggist with a guarantee of satisfactory results or money returned. It will insure prompt relief, you will sleep and enjoy your life better than you ever felt in your life—adv.

INDUSTRIAL BANQUET

The Banquet given to Employees of the Industrial Girl's Club on Friday evening was a decided success in every way. Plans that had been made were brought to a happy issue—which is always encouraging.

The girls, with their leader, Miss Bullock, had every detail well thought out, from the toastmistress, Miss Elsie Brown, president of the Girl's Industrial Club, who made an ideal toastmistress with her clever stories, to the seven toasts which responded to by Misses Mabel Cole, Pearl Gosney, Annie Sue Kellam, Elizabeth Lewis, Celia Dodson, Mrs. Ruth Settle and Mrs. Capitola Young. It was indeed a proud moment in the lives of the girls to know their own people, all busy men, had time to come to the banquet and what is more to give such splendid, helpful talks.

Representatives from the following mills were present: Riverside, Dan River Division, Morrocco and the Knitting Mills. Each gentleman had a word to leave with the girls. Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Carson Watson left a message that could not but touch the hearts of every girl. They said they thought the girls were doing so well and were so full of vital force and thought were their words. The last one called on was Mr. Bascom Jordan who was not scheduled to speak. The toastmistress in a naive manner turned to Mr. Jordan and said, "Won't Mr. Jordan tell us what he thinks of us?" Mr. Jordan, was not slow in telling the girls in a most friendly way just what he did think of them and it goes without saying he thought the finest thing of them. The beautiful words of "Follow the Glean" closed the banquet.

The cheer-leader, Miss Mary Gosney, kept the club busy with cheer songs, thus adding real zest to the banquet.

It would be difficult to say what everybody thought of the splendid Industrial Committee and their wonderful banquet, supper of workers were busy all day preparing the delicious supper. Not only was the menu a most pleasing one but the manner in which it was served was an art.

Interest in the Industrial end of the work is growing all the time. Kind friends are continually doing something for the girls. A recent gift from the Teachers' Association for the Dan River scholars was very much appreciated. Danville has reasons to be exceedingly proud of having had selected from a large group of applications throughout the South to a of her girls, Misses Maggie Wall and Polly Clifton of the Morrocco Manufacturing Company, with the privilege of a third from the same concern—Miss Elsie Brown. All applicants for the Summer school are carefully gone over by a committee of the Dan River College staff, and the fact that Danville is to have two if not three scholarships speaks well for the fine girls here. The city might add to its glory—Danville does this—No Finer Girls Than Danville Girls.

A Real Camp At Last

Yes, the C. W. C. A. has a camp and everybody is happy, and everybody is eager for camping days to begin. But there is something to be done before the camper settles down to life in the open. The spot—the old "Homestead" on the "Happy-Home" farm, on the Martinsville and Sprav road is a choice one. The hills, the river, lovely trees, two springs, and no one to disturb the happy, prospective campers. This all appeals with a capital B. It was whispered to the General Secretary last evening there might even be a cow and a dog, so with these four-footed friends and all nature has to offer there is little more to hope for. But there is something—the camp must be equipped so that the Gypsy life might have a touch of indoor comfort. The Camp committee suggests since this is house cleaning time in many homes there might be tucked away unused articles not needed. These would find a very welcome home in the Y. W. C. A. camp. Some of the needs are: china plates, large meat platters, covered vegetable dishes, knives and forks, good substantial rocking chairs for the living room, when the rain drives everybody indoors, lamps, lanterns, fenders to put in front of fire places, (if a bit rusty and bent, 'twill not matter), a clock, blankets, (if worn ones with a little warmth left for cold nights). These are just a few of the needs. The club girls are planning a Camp Shower, May 22nd and will likely get together the kitchen equipment. All interested friends are to be invited to the Camp Shower.

WEDNESDAY CLUB NOTES.

The final program for the club year was given by the Literature Circle at last Wednesday's meeting Mrs. Ernest L. Dodson read in a most impressive and entertaining style James M. Barrie's play, "The Old Woman Shows her Jewels," a pathetic story based on suggestive facts from the late war.

The semi-annual business meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, May 1st, at the Wednesday Club house, which time with the new officers will be given and the new officers will be installed.

Following the business meeting everyone will go to the Gold Club where the annual frolic will be held. Club members who own automobiles are asked to have them at the club house so that all may be able to attend the frolic. Members not owning automobiles are requested to phone Mrs. J. M. Edmunds, who will see that seats are provided for all.

FINE FASHION SHOW

Feature of "The Glimpses of the Moon" That Will Delight Women Fans.

A superb fashion show, such as will delight all feminine screen lovers, will be seen in Allan Davis's Paramount production of "Glimpses of the Moon" which will be the chief attraction at the Broadway Monday and Tuesday.

In addition to the luxurious furs, gowns and wraps worn by the principal female characters, which are played by Bebe Daniels, Nya Naldi and Ruby de Remer, Director Dwan secured the services of a dozen mannequins from Hickson's and from Clark's, two foremost dress-making establishments in New York. These displaying costumes in a manner that girls have been trained in the art of will get under the skin of even the most hard-fisted of husbands and compel them to buy the gowns in which their wives will be the chief attraction at the Broadway Monday and Tuesday.

The mannikins do some effective work in the modest shop which is the scene of the activities, and together with the fashionable shoppers in the establishment, stage a pageant of costly evening gowns, afternoon frocks, street dresses, fur-trimmed suits, wraps, beauteous hats and lingerie that is certain to arouse every woman's desire for the lovely garments. David Powell is leading man.

John S. Williamson who has been a patient at the General hospital for two weeks has returned to his home in Milton, N. C.

The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms and dogwood, green and white being the class colors.

The address of the occasion was made by Malcolm K. Harris. He pointed out to the class the ideal of womanhood, inspiring them to adopt them as the rule of life.

Mrs. Louis Kaufman gracefully and graciously presented the hospital pins to the class and the Kaufman Memorial prize for the most efficient nurse to Miss Connie May Hall.

Dr. J. Cleveland Hall opened the exercises with prayer and his remarks in closing the program were humorous and much enjoyed still following the color scheme.

The nurses receiving diplomas were:

Miss Susie Farmer, Miss Connie May Hall, Miss Helen Stokes, Miss Emogene Gliven.

NEGRO CUT IN A DRUNKEN BRAWL WITH ANOTHER

Hampton Watkins, colored, is in jail charged with a felonious assault on Will Gillis, also colored. Watkins is alleged to have stabbed Gillis over the right lung as result of a drunken brawl, the details of which have not been learned by the police. The cutting affray took place Saturday afternoon about 8 o'clock on Washington street. Both negroes are said to have been intoxicated and their charges face them. Gillis is also in jail despite his wound, to answer the drunk charge. The arrests were made by Patrolmen I. H. Harris and J. E. Nostand.

The wound Gillis' chest required four stitches. The knife is said to have narrowly missed several large blood arteries near the apex of the lung.

DEVIL DOGS TO SHOW THE WORLD
POLICEMEN CAN'T PICK ON THEM

BY GEORGE H. MANING
(Washington Correspondent of The Danville Bee.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—Nothing since Chateau Thierry, Belleau Woods and St. Mihiel has stirred the U. S. Marines Corps like the attack made on one of the buck privates from the Marine Corps Training Depot at Quantico by two police officers of Fredericksburg, Va., about three weeks ago.

The Marine Corps from Major General Lejeune, the commander, to the youngest buck private, is out to show the world that city officials cannot pick on the Marines and get away with it and that members of that organization are going to resist every protection of the law guaranteed by the Constitution to American citizens.

The situation at Quantico, where the officers and men of that base have instituted a series of suits against the city and two policemen following an assault on a private in one of the regiments, has not only been placed before General Lejeune, but Secretary of the Navy Denby as well. Should the Quantico officials fail in getting justice for the assaulted marine it is considered highly probable that the Navy Department itself may take action.

According to the official's headquarters, Charles O. Segroves, a private, assigned to the 5th Regiment of Marines, was arrested in Fredericksburg on April 2 and charged with being intoxicated. The soldier declared he had just alighted from an automobile when he was seized by two policemen, one of whom held him while the other beat him.

The incident was witnessed by a number of other Marines and an officer of the corps, who succeeded with difficulty in restraining the enlisted men from forming a company and storming the jail, into which their unfortunate mate had been dragged. Returning to Quantico, the officer reported the matter directly to Brigadier General Butler, who dispatched several police officers to Fredericksburg to demand the release of Segroves and obtain promises of action against the offending policemen.

The authorities of Fredericksburg refused to grant either request. It is said that General Butler promptly declared the city "out of bounds," which meant that no member of the Marine Corps might enter its corporate limits without risking court-martial. Simultaneously, he had several assembly to every man in his brigade and promised to take legal action immediately to clear both Segroves and the brigade of the alleged insult. Before the men broke ranks they had raised a fund of $2,000 to employ an attorney, Col. Richard E. Byrd, 3d, one of the most distinguished lawyers of Richmond. Suit was immediately instituted on behalf of Gen. Butler, the officers and men of the marine regiments at Quantico to have the policemen discharged. Later it was announced, warrants will be sought charging them with criminal assault, and a civil suit for damages will be brought by Segroves.

Want Example Made. This report was received with enthusiasm at marine headquarters, from the general wearing two stars down to the sergeant order attached to that office. The officers and men unanimously declared they would like to see the government make an example of the Fredericksburg officers as a warning to other policemen. In the past, officers and men declared, every one has regarded enlisted men as illiterates and bums, fit only to be pummeled and assaulted by any policemen with a bad temper and pugilistic tendencies. There was a time, it was pointed out, when several Washington theaters refused to sell enlisted men orchestra seats, until the government objected and demanded that the ban be lifted.

The man who fought at Chateau Thierry, Belleau Woods and St. Mihiel is going to demand their rights," one officer declared. "They are not to be beaten and persecuted by every policeman who thinks their uniform will prevent them from getting justice. The Marine Corps stands behind every man in its service—and will prove that statement from now on." General Butler, in a personal interview, explained that immediately after the assault a committee, composed of the city manager, city treasurer, chief of police and a leading citizen of Fredericksburg, called on him.

Asked Fair Deal. "I explained to them," the general said, "that all we asked of Fredericksburg was good behavior on the part of their policemen. If a citizen from Fredericksburg were arrested in Quantico by one of our guards and then beaten up it would not be necessary for any one to complain. That guard would be court-martialed and I found guilty, sent to the penitentiary."

"The members of the delegation explained that they were powerless to act until the mayor of Fredericksburg, who was in New Orleans, returned. We waited until the mayor did return and then I sent an officer to see him. The mayor offered to discharge one of the policemen, but further than that, said he could do nothing but write a letter of apology, which he did. That was not satisfactory, called the men of my command together and put the question up to them."

Raise Big Fund. "I asked them to let me know the following morning how much money they could raise. The next day we had a fund of $2,481, which we have termed the marine defense fund. An enlisted man can not very well afford to defend himself on his salary, but when he belongs to a family that can raise nearly $2,500 for him, he is with some family, I should say. Just because a man puts on a uniform he does not lose his citizenship."

"What we do not use of that fund for this case we will keep to defend any other marine who is unjustly treated—and this command stands ready to give any amount more that may be necessary."

A Puzzle a Day

Transform the six straight lines shown above into three, without crossing out or erasing any of the lines.

Yesterday's answer: The number 121 may be divided evenly by 11, but if it is divided by 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6, there will be in each case, a remainder of 1. (2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 each go evenly into 120.)

Runaways Give Dad "Song and Dance"

WINCHESTER, April 29.—Ernest Rickard, Middletown, has been traveling back and forth along the Valley turnpike between Winchester and Mount Jackson, Va., for several days, trying with no success thus far to catch his two runaway sons, Vernon, aged 13, and Carson, aged 10, who left home last Monday morning, ostensibly to go to school.

Whenever Mr. Rickard thought he had the boys located in some particular town, he learned on his next trip there that they had been seen going in some other direction. Finally, they separated, Vernon remaining in the Edinburg section and Carson coming to Winchester. Police found him sleeping in a box at a railroad station and took him to headquarters. Night patrolmen "chipped in" and provided him with ham sandwiches. The following morning day men permitted him to go to a nearby restaurant for breakfast, intending to send him home after he had returned and washed his face, but instead he laid in a large supply of sandwiches, had them charged to the police, and left.

TIED AND DYED SILKS AGAIN
FOR MODERN NEGLIGES

(Special to The Bee.) The new tied and dyed silks are used for modern and fashionable underwear, negligees. They are shown in all the smart shops in lovely colors. If you incline to experiment these are easy to begin with. You tie the length of crepe de chine or georgette into hard knots. The harder possible knots. The dyed fabric. These under the knot and behold—the most bizarre and beautiful results. Illustrated are two of the new step-in combinations designed to accompany low-waisted frocks.

Bursting Auto Tire
Kills Boy on Road

HAMMONTON, N. J., April 29.—Eleven-year-old Genaro Sarapo, of Waterford, met death last night in a most unusual manner. Sarapo and three boy companions were playing on the White Horse pike, when a tire on the car of Jacob Gieger, of Philadelphia, burst, flew from a wheel and struck Sarapo, knocking him onto the concrete highway. He sustained internal injuries, from which he later died. Gieger was arrested by State police.

And with the definite understanding that whenever either of them got the chance to do better he or she should be immediately released? The law of their country facilitated such exchanges, and society was beginning to view them as indulgently as the law."
